Are curing the Sick to an extent never before known of any Medicine. INVALUES, READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELVES

INVALUES HAUEL, Esq. the well known perfumer, of Chestuut atreet, Philadelphia, whose choice products are found at atmost every tublet, says:

"I am hippy to say of your Camaric Pills, that I have found them a better family needleine for common use, than any other within my wnowledge. Many of my friends have realized marked benefits from them and coincide with me in believing that they possess extraordinary virtues for driving out discusse and curing the sick. They are not only effectual but safe and pleasant to be taken, qualities which must make them valued by the public, when they are known."

The venerable Chanceller WARDLAW, writes from ever consent to be, while my means will procure them. The while's renowned S. S. STEVENS, M. D., of Wentworth, N. H., writes:

"Having used your Carnastre Pills in my practice, I certify from experience, that they are an invaluable purpative. In cases of disordered functions of the liver, cauring headache, indigention, costiveness, and the great variety of diseases that follow, they are a surer remedy than any other. In all cases where a purgative remedy is required, I confidently recommend these Pills to the public, as superior to any clier I have ever found. They are sure in their operation, and perfectly are, qualities which make them as invaluable article for public use. It have for many years known your Cherry Personal as the best Cough medicine in the world, and those Pills are in no wise inferior to that admirable preparation for the treatment of diseases. "

Capt. JOEL PRATT, of the ship Marion, writes from Baston, 90th April, 1854;

"Your Pills have cared me from a bilious attack which takes from derangement of the Liver, which had become very serious. I had failed of any relief by my Physician, and from every remedy I could try, but a few doses of your Phils have completely restored me to health. I have given them to my children for worms, with the best effects. They were promptly erreet. I recommended them to a frond for continues, which had troubled him for mainfas; he told me in a lew doys they had corred him. You make the best medicine in the world, and I am free to say sa."

Read this from the distinguished Solicitar of the Eaprome Court, whose brilliant abilities have made him well known, not only in this but the neighboring States.

"Sir: I have great satisfaction incassuring you that my self and family have been very much benedited by your madicanes. My wife was cured two years nince, of a sevete and dangerous cough, by your Cerman Perronsa, and since then has enjoyed perfect health. My children have several times been cured from stacks of the Influence and Croup by it. It is an invaluable remedy for these complaints. Your Cavidance Pills have entirely cured me from a dyspepsia and contiveness, which has grown upon me for some years,—indeed this care is much more important, from the fact that I had falled to get relief from the best Physicians which this scaring of the country affants, and from any of the numerous remedies I had taken.

"You seem to us, loctor, like a providential blessing to our family, and you may well suppose we are not amindful at it. Yours respectfully.
